In 2019, with the support of the Arts Council of Wales, Aberystwyth University School of Art's Museum and Galleries invited Vicky Lindo and Bill Brookes to make a body of work in response to the museum collection.

Vicky and Bill spent many hours over two visits in 2020 and 2022 exploring the collection. They were particularly drawn to the relatively unknown work of the early pioneer studio potter Frances Emma Richards (1869-1931) and the printmaker Christine (Chris) Penn (1943-2014), and the way their intriguing personal narratives emerge in their work.

Their exhibition Conscious Dreaming addresses inspiration and the process of generating ideas through the bold graphic prints of Christine Penn and the ceramics of Frances Emma Richards held in the permanent collection of the University of Aberystwyth.

'Penn's dreamlike prints are full of surreal narrative, something we were drawn to immediately, her style coming directly from her hand. While Richards' ceramics are somewhat opposite, calming meditations juxtaposed to the wild energy of Penn. her restrained and considered colours and textures are applied to minimal yet complex pots.'
